The Summer of Uncertainty

by Rabbi Kirshner

When I last wrote to you in May and June, my engines were turning to idle and I was looking forward to recharging over the summer while in Israel. Little did I know that the world, as we know it, would begin to unravel. Since June, ISIS has become more potent and has continued on its crusade of murder and destruction forcing conversion to Islam or instant death. The Ukraine has become the graveyard of innocent passengers of a commercial jet flying to the Far East and unrest in that region has grown significantly.

Hamas has chosen to wage war on Israel mainly to unify other actors in the region and to earn wages for themselves, since the unity government was formed. This war, Operation Protective Edge, has uncovered terror tunnels built by Hamas engineers with the singular purpose of wreaking horror and murder on innocent Israeli civilians from within internationally undisputed Israeli territory. Protective Edge also confirmed that in Hamas' arsenal of weaponry, they have amassed more than 10,000 rockets and long range rockets which put more than 85% of Israel's civilian population within reach of Hamas' murderous goals. This war - which at the time I pen this letter to you has reignited as if it were a ball game that was delayed by rain - has stoked a wicked rash of anti-semitism and anti Zionism worldwide.

From Berlin to Paris to London, and even to U.S. cities such as Chicago, marches that look, sound and feel like pogroms have been running rampant. Calling for death to Israel and death to Jews. Worshippers in Paris were holed up in a synagogue for fear of death if they stepped out on the street.

In my estimation, the most painful salt in the wound of this episode has been the unfair, unprofessional and unbalanced reporting in most media outlets sympathizing with Hamas - a full fledged and recognized terrorist organization - and unjustly criticizing Israel. At times through this operation, there have been clear gaps of understanding between Israel and the United States, which while dangerous at times of peace and stability, are only intensified as our enemies, shared and separate will seek to pounce on that divide.

The situation was so dire and uncertain that as a Temple we were compelled to postpone our bi-annual Family trip to Israel. That was one of the saddest days of my rabbinate.

I have yet to find the words to address the preposterous claims and accusations slung at Israel by the United Nations during this process. It is inexplicable.

Meanwhile, rallies in New York and New Jersey, along with other major cities in the world, gathered hundreds of thousands of people collectively to stand with Israel. Countless solidarity missions have taken off to Israel loaded with supplies and love for soldiers and people living in the South who have been under constant barrage of rocket attacks.

Think about this statistic: 3100 rockets were shot from Gaza in a five week time frame. That is more than 100 rockets per day.

Three months ago, when winding down the year, this is the very last thing I thought we, as a global community, would be facing. Traditionally, this message at this time of the year is about new beginnings and starting over again. I encourage us to hear the Shofar and ground ourselves in making right that which is wrong. We plan for our seats for the holidays, I work on sermons and we make our invitation lists to share apples and honey. It is hard for me to get my mind there now. I know the calendar says we should, but my heart is in the East, with Israel and Jews facing persecution worldwide. For the first time in my life, I feel like our collective future is more uncertain than ever. And while personally, we can be steadfast in making plans for kids going back to school, putting our noses to the grindstone for work and all of the individual responsibilities we have - and we should - we must feel the tension and discomfort of uncertainty. We must realize that we have a voice and we need to use it. We are required to think of brothers and sisters in the IDF and their families and the personal and global uncertainty they are living with. To not consider them and have them in our daily consciousness and in our hearts would be selfish and un-Jewish.

This tension and discomfort of uncertainty is the essence of the High Holiday Season. I am sad that the world's temperature is forcing us to be in this place and pained that I cannot share a direct message for being certain of our shared future. Perhaps, that is the emotion that will drive us to live our lives to the fullest and make the most impact in our world. I hope so.

Dori and our kids join me in wishing you and yours a year of health and meaning. I know you join me in praying of the welfare of our fellow IDF soldiers and for peace for all of Israel. May this year of 5755 be THE year to bring certainty to the uncertain and direction in our time of communal challenge.

Shana Tova.

How to Keep Warm in the Sukkah

The Jewish Holidays are never on time. Sometimes they feel early (last year), while other times they seem late (this year).

This deferment may be most noticeable during Sukkot (beginning October 8th) because we must go outside to eat our meals in the Sukkah.

I hope that you and I bundle up and take comfort in this discomfort, if you will.

We go outside as the weather turns cold to make a few statements:

First, our real protection comes not in the form of walls and heaters, but in the form of relationships. Surrounded by friends, family, and G-d, we demonstrate that material possessions are secondary to community and faith.

Second, we remember that many people in our world – and some not even so far away – also lack physical shelter. We cannot forget our duty to ensure that all people deserve to sleep indoors. And we should be grateful that we do.

Third, we recall the frequent physical discomforts of Jews throughout the generations, to note how far we've come and to re-orient ourselves to our traditions. Sukkot just wouldn't feel the same if meals were indoors.

This Sukkot please join me in heading into the cool weather with hot soup and warm company.

Chag Sameach!

Embracing Unity, Love & Compassion

From ancient times to the present we've always witnessed how the hardest of pasts bring forth the best of futures.

Two events, deeply engraved in the Jewish collective memory illustrate this: following the destruction of the Holy Temple, the Messianic idea took hold and the Judaism that we know today began to take shape; after the terrible period of the Holocaust, the State of Israel was born and a new Jewish history was written in the archives of nations. Wherever there was a curse, a blessing of far higher magnitude immediately followed.

As always was the case, our faith in G-d the Almighty can grant us the power to make us stronger, better and happier. We know that He watches over us from above and we have the complete faith in Him that He craves to reside amongst us. It is the unity of His children, through an unshaken love we bestow upon each other, that invites Him to dwell amongst us and bless us with all the good that He can give us and all the blessings that we can take from Him.

As the New Year approaches I wish and pray that this coming year be the best we've ever had. May we learn how to disavow hate and conflict and how to embrace friendship and love. May we heed the call of Hashem for unity and compassion, for greatness and inspiration. May this coming year bring us total happiness, health and wealth, and may we achieve in this coming year everything we ever wished for in all the years past.

Pinchas

July 7, 2014 in Israel

Ezra is an 8th grader at the Elizabeth Morrow School where his favorite subjects are History and Science. His favorite free time activities are ice hockey (goalie), lacrosse, photography, and hanging out with my two brothers and my friends.

For his Keshet Olam, Ezra taught an elderly woman how to use Skype through Jewish Family Service. He also met with residents at the Jewish Home at Rockleigh with his dog, Alex. Ezra writes, "I am really excited to have my Bar Mitzvah in Israel, especially because I am sharing the day with my two first cousins. Becoming a Bar Mitzvah is important to me because it makes me feel a part of a greater Jewish community. I feel so lucky to be able to celebrate my Bar Mitzvah in Jerusalem as countless Jews have done before me."

July 20, 2014 in Israel

Tamara is an 8th grader at Cresskill Middle School, where her favorite subjects are English and Science. Her favorite free time activities are soccer, reading, and traveling to new countries.

For her Keshet Olam, Tamara volunteered at the Rockleigh Jewish Home. Tamara writes, "Helping and giving back should be part of everyone's journey; no matter who you are, you can always help someone in need. My Bat Mitzvah was held at Yad Vashem where I was twinned with Eisabeth Abigail Pakkedrager who perished in the Holocaust before reaching her 12th birthday. Becoming a Bat Mitzvah is important to me because it means I am now a Jewish woman. It also gives me a basis for when I'm older so I can continue to practice my religion."

September 6, 2014

Justin is an 8th grader at Solomon Schechter Day School where his favorite subjects are Math & Science. His favorite free time activity is basketball.

For his Keshet Olam, Justin is teaching autistic kids to play basketball. Justin writes, "I feel I will make a difference in these kids' lives. Every day I play basketball, and I wanted to have other kids experience the fun of competing that I love so much. Becoming a Bar Mitzvah is so important to me because today I am a man. I will carry on the traditions and responsibilities that connect us from past generations. The education I have received at Solomon Schechter has given me the values to lead a more ethical and moral life. My Jewish education has given me a strong bond with Israel and has defined me as the person I am today."

September 13, 2014

Isabella is a seventh grader at Solomon Schechter Day School where her favorite subjects are Math, Art, and Science. Her favorite free time activities are Tae kwon doh (black belt), playing guitar, singing, soccer, and acting.

For her Keshet Olam, Isabella volunteers at the Ruff Rehab, an organization that rescues and adopts out puppies and dogs. She volunteers on Sundays and help take care of the dogs, walk them, clean up after them, and play with them. Most importantly, she helps get them adopted by caring families so that they end up in good homes. Isabella writes, "My Jewish education has been and will continue to be of great value throughout my life. I will always know that I have this connection to the Jewish religion and have my roots in a culture that dates back centuries. When I practice the traditions and laws of Judaism, I am proud that I have this ability to connect with people and different parts of the religion that others may not be able to do if they do not have the proper education."

September 20, 2014

Ryan is an 8th grader at Tenafly Middle School where his favorite subjects are Social Studies, Math, and Science. His favorite free time activities are basketball, tennis, and piano.

For his Keshet Olam, Ryan went to the Rockleigh Jewish Home and played piano for the residents. Ryan writes, "It connected to the world in various ways. First of all, the residents were able to relate to the music even in their different physical limitations. It allowed me to use my skills to do something good for others. I brought smiles to their faces and that gave me a feeling of joy knowing I can make their lives a little bit better. It's important to me because I'm keeping up the traditions and following in the footsteps of my parents and grandparents and for all the relatives that perished in the Holocaust. It helped me learn about my culture and heritage, and instill the morals that I should live my life by."

Samantha Taylor Marks

Gwenyth is an 8th grader at Cresskill Middle School where her favorite subjects are Algebra, Science, and Italian. Her favorite free time activities are tennis and skiing. She also hosted a sports stand to raise money which will be donated to the Special Olympics and for the State of Israel.

For her Keshet Olam, Gwenyth participated in the Adaptive Sports Foundation at Wyndham Mountain that helps raise money for disabled children through various ski races. Gwenyth writes, "Becoming a Bat Mitzvah has a special meaning to me because it has allowed me to reflect upon the importance of Judaism to my family and to our Russian heritage. I reflected on all aspects of Judaism and how I can become a better Jew living a more significant Jewish life with more value. My Jewish education will always be valuable to me throughout my life just like all my Jewish values. Whether I am taught at home or at Hebrew school, I will take my Jewish knowledge everywhere I go and in every step of my adult Jewish life. My Jewish education at Temple Emanu-El has also strengthened my understanding, appreciation and love for the State of Israel, which I hope to visit real soon."

For her Keshet Olam, Jordyn is helping out the Hebrew school at Temple Emanu-El. Jordyn writes, "I decided to choose this project because I love helping kids and helping teachers get through their day with ease. I feel that I am making a difference because I am making other peoples' lives easier for them. When I grew up in the Temple Emanu-El Hebrew school, I knew that I wanted to help out the teachers just like the other volunteers. In my eyes they looked like they were having fun helping people and it turns out they were because I'm have the same amount of fun. Becoming a Bat Mitzvah is important to me because it makes me feel like I am being accepted into a group after waiting for thirteen years. I cannot wait for my Bat Mitzvah to come. My Jewish education will be of value to me my entire life because I can teach what I know to the next generation of my family like in the song "L'Dor Va Dor."

For her Keshet Olam, Maya is selling bracelets for an organization called "One Kid One World." This organization gathers funds to educate girls in less developed countries. Maya writes, "I know I can't help educate every girl, but if I can give one kid like me an opportunity to have an education, it would be an accomplishment. Judaism has always been a big part of my life. My family and I have been attending service every Friday night since I was about 2 weeks old. To me, becoming a Bat Mitzvah means that I will strengthen my bond to our religion, my family and, our beliefs. I am excited to be formally accepted into the community as an adult. I am grateful to have this opportunity."

Rosh Hashanah

Date 29 of Elul, which corresponds to Wednesday, September 24th after Sunset. The holiday lasts for two days here and in Israel.

About Rosh Hashanah is the holiday which celebrates the birthday of the world. The Mishna teaches there are four new years (4 quarters) and Rosh Hashanah is the new year of the month.

Prayers Extra Piyyuts (poetry) are added to the traditional service including Unetaneh Tokef, Leyl Orech Din and Hineni Clothes We wear white to remind us of our priestly vestments and to begin anew. Many wear a robe called a Kittel on both Holy Days.

Food We eat apples with honey to resemble a sweet new year.

Customs We blast the Shofar on Rosh Hashanah and the entire month before that (but not on Shabbat).

Yom Kippur

9th of Tishrei, which corresponds to Friday, October 3rd after sunset. The holiday is 25 hours long here and in Israel.

Yom Kippur is the Day of Atonement. It is a fixed time to allow us to seek forgiveness from family, friends, ourselves and God. It is a time for spiritual renewal.

Extra Piyyuts (poetry) are added to the service. In addition, we also have an extra service at the end of Yom Kippur called Leila, which means “closing.”

We do not wear leather on Yom Kippur. The Torah commands us to afflict ourselves on this holiest day. “Affliction” means that we are to deny ourselves certain “luxuries,” among them leather.

Yom Kippur is a fast day that starts the night before. The last meal before is called Seudat Mafseket.

We do not wear cologne, perfumes, or makeup. Showering is not allowed as well.

Sukkot ☞ Hoshanna Rabbah

Date

Sukkot is the 14th of Tishrei, which is Wednesday, October 8th (at sunset). Sukkot is 8 days long in the Diaspora and 7 days long in Israel.

Hoshanna Rabba is the final day of Sukkot, the 21st of Tishrei, which is October 15th (at sunset).

About

Sukkot commemorates the exodus of the Jewish people where we lived in booths throughout our journey.

Hoshanna Rabbah is the time that our final pleas of forgiveness are heard by God and the book of life is sealed for the year.

Prayers

We recite the Hallel prayers and say Hoshanot while holding our Lulav and Etrog and parade around the synagogue.

Hoshanot are special prayers that are said as the congregation walks around the shul building holding their lulav and etrog.

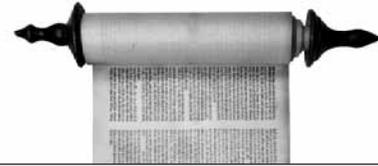

Customs

We eat in huts called Sukkot and shake the Lulav, Hadas, Arava (Palm, Myrtle and Willow) while holding the Etrog.

On Hoshanna Rabbah we beat the Arava branch (the willow) on the floor 5 times as if to beat out our own sins.

Food

We eat harvested foods and still partake in the custom of eating fruits dipped in honey.

Shemini Atzeret ☞ Simchat Torah

Shemini Atzeret is the 22nd of Tishrei, which is Thursday, October 16th (at sunset).

Simchat Torah is on the 23rd of Tishrei, which is Friday, October 17th (at sunset).

Shemini Atzeret literally means “The assembly of the eighth day”. It is a harvest holiday.

On Simchat Torah we rejoice in the completion of the reading of the Torah.

On Shemini Atzeret we recite Yizkor and a special prayer for rain in Israel and for bountiful crops.

On Simchat Torah, each person is supposed to receive an Aliyah to the Torah. There are three special Aliyot called Hattan Torah, Hattan B'reisheet and Maftir.

We break down the Sukkah on Shemini Atzeret.

On Simchat Torah we dance with the Torah in seven processions around the synagogue.

Shake It Up!

SHAKE IT UP THIS SUKKOT WITH YOUR VERY OWN LULAV AND ETROG!

Prices are $40/$60 for a standard/deluxe set.

Pick up dates October 7th & 8th

We invite you to bring your Lulav and Etrog to services and experience the joy of Sukkot.

Coming Soon!

Fresh, Fun and Fabulous Activities for the Baby to Toddler Set!

Starting after the High Holidays, Temple Emanu-El will be pleased to offer a new series of programming for young children and families. Classes will include music, cooking, yoga, art, Shabbat & holiday activities. More information including schedules and details will be arriving in your inbox and on our website soon. We look forward to having you and your little ones join us!

During the month of August, Rabbi Kirshner and 40 other members of our community, local rabbis and other Christian and Jewish lay leaders flew on an Emergency Solidarity Mission to Israel.

In addition to bringing 22 duffel bags full of supplies which weighed more than half a ton, and more than $50,000 donated by our generous community, they brought love and support to the soldiers and citizens of Israel who have been impacted by Operation Protective Edge. Please read the blog posts at <http://templemanu-el.com/blog/> and peruse the picture to see the impact your contribution has had.

Even if you were not able to join the mission in person, you can follow along in the spirit on our new Temple Emanu-El website at templemanu-el.com

THE ONLY CALL YOU'LL NEED TO MAKE

Why should Jewish knowledge be a core part of every Israeli student's higher education?

Bar-Ilan University believes that Jewish and Zionist values demand it.

Bar-Ilan is Israel's only university where every student is required to take 20 percent of his/her coursework in Jewish Studies.

Activities that affirm Jewish and Zionist values include:

- Bringing scientists back to Israel to form a hub in the Galilee for superior research at BIU's Medical School, which emphasizes Jewish ethics in medical practice.
- Offering BIU Lookstein Center for Jewish Education programs that enhance the skills of educators and administrators at U.S. day schools.
- Fostering tikkun olam by improving the learning retention of children in Africa with AIDS or enhancing post-traumatic stress treatment of U.S. soldiers and disaster victims.
- Promoting environmental justice by leading the way in renewable energy research.

To learn more about BIU's partnership opportunities to strengthen Israel and Jewish identity go to: www.afbiu.org or call Howard Charish at 212-906-3900 or email howard.charish@afbiu.org
